Enter to be the 2007 Sheboygan County Holiday Parade
GRAND MARSHALL!

In 50 words or less, tell us "What the holidays mean to me"

The Rules:

- Open to students in grades 4K-2 living in or going to school in Sheboygan County.
- Entries must be received no later than November 9, 2007 to qualify.
- Submit one entry form per classroom with student essays attached.
- Each student in the classroom must participate to be eligible (you may accommodate for special needs as necessary).
- The winning classroom will be drawn at random from all submitted entries and notified on Monday, November 12, 2007.
- The winning classroom will win a pizza party for their room - and - will have their essays read as time allows during the parade (televised on TV8).
- All students from the winning grade level at the school (ex: all 2nd Grade students at Jefferson) will be welcome to be the 2007 Sheboygan County Holiday Parade GRAND MARSHALL and to ride our flatbed semi-trailer in the parade (at the discretion of the winning teacher).
- Permission slips will be the responsibility of the winning school.
- Winners will be given time on the day of the parade to decorate the flatbed in the theme of "Gum Drops and Candy Land" to be eligible as one of the "non-profit" parade entries and win money for their school (details will be given to the winning teacher).
